This memorandum presents a review of captioned book, which is being retained in the Communist Infiltrated and New Left Groups Unit, Internal Security Section, Domestic Intelligence Division.

SYNOPSIS: Hoffman, head of Youth International Party (YIP) and self-admitted anarchist and revolutionary artist, is on Security Index of New York Office. Captioned book, a great portion of which was written while author under influence of LSD, is filled with extreme obscenities and referred to by Hoffman as "a book of garbage," an excellent appraisal. His account of March on Pentagon, October, 1967, is merely obscene descriptions of actions of demonstrators and conflict between them and authorities. He calls Chicago demonstrations at Democratic National Convention (DNC) in August, 1968, "the Perfect Mess," adding "We had won the Battle of Chicago. I knew we had smashed the Democrats' chances and destroyed the two-party system in this country and perhaps with it electoral politics." Hoffman obsessed with idea of developing "a free America," to be brought about by destroying property and abolishing work and is fervent admirer of Castro; he feels since Castro has made such gigantic strides in creating "a free society" in 11 years, it is possible for revolutionaries in America to do likewise. Numerous uncomplimentary references to FBI in book, such as Hoffman's comment on DNC demonstrations: "In a Perfect Mess everyone gets what he wants. In a Perfect Mess only the System suffers. The road into Chicago begins and ends in your own head. Daley and the FBI will enter by finding a conspiracy." He then sets forth other well known names and his opinion of how they will relate to the "Perfect Mess."

BOOK REVIEW
"REVOLUTION FOR THE HELL OF IT"
BY ABBIE HOFFMAN (ALIAS "FREE")
100-449923

DETAILS:

The Author

Free, in reality Abbie Hoffman, is the 32-year-old co-founder of the Youth International Party (YIP), a New York based group which was formed in early 1968 for the purpose of conducting a "Festival of Life" during the Democratic Convention in August, 1968, in Chicago. Hoffman is on the Security Index of the New York Office.

Hoffman has been arrested on numerous occasions during demonstrations against U. S. policy at home and abroad, including the demonstration in Washington, D. C., October 21-23, 1967, protesting the war in Vietnam. He participated in the Columbia University uprisings in New York, and during an interview regarding these activities in May, 1968, on the Chicago CBS television program "At Random" stated he was in favor of the overthrow of the United States Government by any means possible. He was one of the leaders of Democratic Convention protestors in August, 1968, and is presently free on bond on charges of resisting arrest and disorderly conduct resulting from his appearing in public at that time with an obscene word printed on his forehead. In November, 1968, he was convicted on a charge of mutilating an American flag as a result of his reporting to hearings of the House Committee on UnAmerican Activities in October, 1968, wearing a star spangled red, white, and blue shirt. He was sentenced to pay $100 or spend 30 days in jail. The sentence has been delayed pending appeal.

On September 18, 1968, during a press conference in Chicago, Hoffman stated he does not need money, does not work, and does not ever plan to work because he is a passive revolutionary artist. He observed everything is free, "Who needs money?" He reported he is in the process of completely redeveloping New York City and has things well under way. From 14th Avenue on he said things are well organized, "free sex, free narcotics, the world is a ball."

FBI Mentioned

There are numerous references to the FBI in captioned book, some of which are set forth below:

Memorandum for Mr. W. C. Sullivan

Page 9: "Paul Krassner, who was watching television, shouted that Stokely had just returned and had been grabbed by the FBI." This sentence was thrown into the middle of Hoffman's description of an LSD party.

Page 122: Hoffman's comment on the Chicago demonstrations during the Democratic National Convention in August, 1968: "Chicago was, as I have stated before, a Perfect Mess. In a Perfect Mess everyone gets what he wants. In a Perfect Mess only the System suffers. The road into Chicago begins and ends in your own head. Daley and the FBI will enter by finding a conspiracy." He then sets forth other well known names and his opinion of how they will relate to the "Perfect Mess."

Page 206: Captioned book contains two pages of acknowledgements to "friends." Many of the names listed are in argot or appear to be take-offs on names of well known persons. Included is "J. Edgar Freako."

Page 209: Referring to his arrest by police on September 17, 1968, as he stepped from an airplane in Chicago: "When bail was produced on this charge, I was then arrested by the FBI and charged with 'crimes aboard an aircraft'. The FBI is the only agency in the country that arrests you and makes it seem like they are doing you a favor." There then follows his version of the interview with FBI Agents, which contains nothing derogatory concerning this Bureau.

Book Review

Captioned book, published in November, 1968, is written in the first person, is filled with extreme obscenity, and covers Hoffman's impressions of the March on the Pentagon in October, 1967, and the demonstrations at the Democratic National Convention in Chicago in August, 1968.

In the first paragraph of the book, Hoffman states: "The other day I took some LSD somewhere in the Florida Keys, where I've come to try to write a book." He later refers to the book as "a book of garbage," with which statement it would be difficult to disagree, but it is not difficult to believe that a great portion of it was written while Hoffman was under the influence of LSD. He makes constant reference to being "stoned," "smashed," and "going on LSD trips."

Memorandum for Mr. W. C. Sullivan
BOOK REVIEW
"REVOLUTION FOR THE HELL OF IT"
BY ABBIE HOFFMAN (ALIAS "FREE")
100-449923

Speaking of the Youth International Party (YIP) philosophy, Hoffman says: "Clarity is not one of our goals. Confusion is mightier than the sword! . . . We have totally destroyed words and replaced them with 'doing'--action becomes the only reality . . . If the straight world understood all this (obscene), it would render us impotent, because understanding is the first step to control and control is the secret to our extinction."

Hoffman is obsessed with the idea of developing what he calls "a free America," which he says will be brought about by destroying property and abolishing work; yet one of his favorite mottoes is "Make Love, Not War." He claims he is not interested in whether someone is for or against the Yippie movement so long as each person "does his thing"--the thing he wants most in life to do, be it "punching a marshal, jumping a wall, doing a dance, singing a song, painting or blowing up a building." //

Insisting that the Yippies are not part of the New Left, Hoffman makes derogatory remarks about the Students for a Democratic Society (SDS) and the National Mobilization Committee (NMC). He claims to have outgrown the New Left in that disciples of that movement are for sacrifice, dedication, and responsibility and are filled with anger, frustration, and guilt, whereas he and his followers believe in having fun and doing only what they want to do.

Hoffman's description of the March on the Pentagon was told through the haze of an LSD trip and consists of nothing but obscene descriptions of the actions of the demonstrators and the conflict between them and the authorities.

About the Chicago demonstrations during the Democratic National Convention in August, 1968, which Hoffman calls "The Perfect Mess," he says: I can only relate to Chicago as a personal anarchist, a revolutionary artist." He offered the opinion that had the demonstrations lasted another week "We would have gotten the cops to assassinate Humphrey. We had won the Battle of Chicago. I knew we had smashed the Democrats' chances and destroyed the two-party system in this country and perhaps with it electoral politics."

Enclosed herewith are eleven copies of an LHM, setting forth information regarding recent activities of subject.

The Bureau's attention is invited to the fact that in the attached LHM subject is claiming that he suffered from serum hepatitis, contracted as a result of his arrest by the WDCPD, while information contained in referenced LHM shows that the records of the Albert Einstein Hospital, Bronx, New York reflect that he was admitted as an emergency patient with infectious hepatitis on 12/4/68.

One copy of the LHM is being disseminated to the Chicago Office in view of pending prosecution there, and one copy is being disseminated to WFO in view of the fact the LHM contains current information relative to subject's arrest in WDC in December, 1968.

ABBOTT HOWARD HOFFMAN

Special Agents of the Federal Bureau of Investigation observed Abbey Hoffman at the Cook County Courthouse, Chicago, Illinois, on January 28, 1969. Hoffman appeared in court on charges of disorderly conduct and resisting arrest during the Democratic National Convention. Hoffman also appeared in court on a city charge of carrying a concealed weapon aboard an aircraft on August 19, 1968.

In a late session on January 28, 1969, following oral arguments on various motions before the court, Hoffman was convicted of resisting arrest and was sentenced to one year probation, with the first 15 days to be served in the House of Correction, Chicago, Illinois. Hoffman was released on $1,000.00 appeal bond.

In addition, Hoffman was found guilty on a city charge of carrying a switchblade knife aboard an aircraft, and was fined $100.00. On this charge, Hoffman was released on $250.00 appeal bond.

A charge of disorderly conduct for having an obscene word written on his forehead during the Democratic National Convention was dismissed. Hoffman was given until March 18, 1969, to file notice of appeal.

Yippie! You are one of 30,000 lucky persons being sent free this freshly-rolled marihuana cigarette. We are doing this in order to clear the garbage from the air. Here are some FACTS:

- * Marihuana has been used for over 2500 years throughout the world.
- * Scientific research at the University of Michigan and Boston University show marihuana to be as harmless as coffee. Here is what an official study carried on by the British Government had to say: "Marihuana is much less dangerous than amphetamines, barbituates, and also less dangerous than alcohol."
- * Marihuana is not habit-forming any more than are the movies. "There are no lasting ill effects from even the acute use of marihuana" say researchers Goodman and Gilman in Pharmacological Basis of Therapeutics.
- * "The often-quoted fact that pot-smoking leads to heroin addiction is just not true. Marihuana is not as dangerous as it was once thought to be" says J. Murphy of the U.S. Bureau of Drug Control.

It would be almost impossible to find more than a handful of researchers who would claim marihuana is harmful, yet the government and local authorities maintain the same attitudes they have held for years. Penalties for doing just what you are doing right now run up to life imprisonment in some states. Lindsay has just petitioned the Governor of New York to raise the penalty from one to four years for possession. In 1968, over 60,000 people in California alone were arrested for smoking pot. Nationwide statistics to be released next month will show over 200,000 arrests last year. The law is very discriminatory with blacks, hippies and other minority group members being the only ones prosecuted.

Anyway, we thought we would give you a chance to make up your own mind. It's very simple. Just get a match and light up! Plenty of people smoke pot who do not smoke regular cigarettes, and besides, you can't get cancer from it. Just inhale deeply and hold the smoke down as long as you can. You've had enough when you feel kind of nice and mellow. If you already smoke join us when we strike again on Mothers Day by sending out 10 or more joints to persons selected from the phone book. Oh yes, one more thing, don't call the cops, dig?

Doctors join the Revolution

ABBIE HOFFMAN
LIBERATION NEWS SERVICE
I'VE ALWAYS HAD THIS THING ABOUT DOCTORS AND HOSPITALS. My father was a distributor of physician and hospital supplies. I grew up with doctors and doctor talk all around me. In a previous life, I worked for two years in a mental hospital as a psychologist and later in yet another life as a drug detailman calling on physicians. I had gotten to know doctors pretty well and my impression was, with very few exceptions, that they were a dedicated, well-meaning group of rotten, conceited, dumb, racist bastards. Their politics is on a level, say, to that of the British Admiralty in the late nineteenth century.

Moreover, the hospital structure which plays such a key role in the training and subsequent life of a physician encourages archaic medical thinking in spite of all its new found gadgets. THE BOARD OF TRUSTEES OF ANY HOSPITAL IN AMERICA WOULD MAKE THE BOARD OF TRUSTEES OF COLUMBIA LOOK DOWN RIGHT REVOLUTIONARY, and the Hospital Board runs its institution with a tight fist.

Suspension from a hospital staff means black balling from an entire region and possibly from the whole country. The black-balled physician is still free, of course, to practice medicine, but without a hospital staff position, his ability to gain intensive care treatment for his patients is severely curtailed.

The stakes for rebellion are high. In addition, the material incentives for a physician who keeps his nose clean are so high that very few, very few indeed, step out of line.

There is another factor which tends to make them reactionary and that is their training. Usually medical schools draw students who have majored in one of the sciences; when they get them, a period of intensive study, internship, and residence follows that might last ten years. This might be followed by another two years in the Army for males. And so, by the time the typical physician is ready to go into practice, he is about thirty-five years old.

During all those years, he has been exposed to little outside of the field of medicine. His training, including undergraduate school has cost in the neighborhood of $30,000. It is no wonder then that the temptation to hang up a shingle and begin charging patients twenty-five to fifty dollars for an appointment that might last ten minutes, and a thousand or two for an operation that might take an hour or less, is extremely high.

Physicians 35-40 are hungry after years of financial deprivation. Older physicians are surrounded by a team of consultants, accountants, business secretaries, collection bureaus, and medical journals that function solely to advise the doctor on the modern operating techniques concerning a patient's wallet. Hypochondriasis, that eternal money-maker, still forms the backbone of many a physician's practice.

I WRITE ALL THIS LYING IN A HOSPITAL BED during my third week of hepatitis. When the disease first hit me, I went to see Dr. Irving Oyle. Dr. Oyle is a rarity in the world of medicine. He is totally dedicated to curing patients and doesn't give a shit about money. A few years ago he was running a successful practice out on Long Island with all the right kind of patients. Somehow it wasn't giving him the kind of gratification he wanted so he closed up shop and headed for the ghetto in New York's Lower East Side. As for practicing medicine, the Lower East Side must seem more like the wild west. Firmly entrenched in a storefront that one could easily mistake as one of the Motherfucker dens, Dr. Oyle carries on a lone struggle to bring medical care to an area that could use 50-100 Dr. Oyles.

File 580

FROM THE TIME HE ORDERED ME INTO THE HOSPITAL TO THE TIME WE FINALLY LOCATED A BED TOOK SIX DAYS. He told me of a fellow doctor who had a heart attack patient who waited three days before space could be found in a hospital.

Finally another doctor friend of mine located a bed in Albert Einstein Hospital in the Bronx, and I was bundled up at 1:00 a.m. and sped to the hospital. The doctor feared that if I waited until morning the space might be gone.

Let's turn now to the finances. Because sympathetic doctors who know me pulled certain strings, I am going to escape this mess financially clean. Otherwise this treatment would cost somewhere in the neighborhood of $2,500 and this is without an operation or any medication. There is a kid down the hall with an unusual blood ailment that has hospitalized him for two months. When he is through, his cost, which his parents must pay, will run in the neighborhood of $15,000.

A month ago, I had a rasping cough and went to the clinic at St. Vincent's Hospital. It was eleven dollars to see a physician, and an hour and a half wait. He prescribed an X-ray appointment that, because of a crowded schedule, was three weeks from that date. When I showed up, the hospital demanded sixteen dollars for the X-ray, and again cash in advance. (I also found out it would be another eleven dollars when I came back to get the physician's report on the X-ray results). I stormed out after a big shouting match and never had the X-rays taken.

For a simple cough, treatment was to be at least $38, not counting another $5 for medication prescribed and probably another $5 more the second time I saw the physician. So there it is, $50 for a cough, about $2500 for hepatitis, $1000-$10,000 for an operation, and, well, it's a good thing they don't charge those poor bastards for heart transplants.

Couple this with the astronomically high cost of medicine in this country and you can see that when the doctor looks up from his desk and tells you hospitalization is required, going home and shooting yourself might, in the long run, prove less painful. That is, of course, if you haven't read "The High Cost of Dying."

The strange part about this mess is that if you are really poor you are not too bad off. That is if you live in New York or one of a dozen or so other states that have a welfare program that entitles you to full medical treatment. These states also have a Medicaid program that provides relatively complete care if you are under 21 or over 65 years of age and make less than $2300 per year. Then there is the federal Medicare program for persons over 65.

These programs do require applying with complicated forms and delays that can take up to six months. Still, public hospitals are fastidiously understaffed and overcrowded. In addition, few hospitals make attempts to reach out into the community and the poor are reluctant to go to a hospital which is excessively authoritarian, paternalistic, and white.

Then there are the various health insurance plans which range in cost from $200-$400 per year and again have restrictions as to the limit in terms of type and length of care, but will cover most conditions.

Without any of these three deals going for you, and unless you have millions or your brother is a doctor, you have a hell of a problem if you get seriously ill.

There is some light shining at the end of the tunnel. There is some pressure building up and from the most unlikely of all sources—from the doctors themselves.

During the civil rights movement in the South in 1964, there arose a group of doctors called the Medical Committee on Human Rights. They organized physicians and medical students to go South. They relied chiefly on financing from other physicians. It was unheard of in the annals of American medicine. This group later expanded its work into northern ghettos and even picketed an AMA convention in New York, asking that physicians become more cognizant of the problems of the poor and the Blacks in particular, and also demanding that the AMA prohibit racial discrimination in the staffing of hospitals.

The Medical Committee on Human Rights in accordance with the general temper of the movement in 1964 and 1965 was extremely liberal in its programs and demands. Things have changed radically and "We Shall Overcome" has given way to "The Streets Belong to the People." The younger more militant Student Health Organization is growing in medical schools around the country. SHO chapters in a number of schools are pushing for greater student power in school policy. Groups at Stanford University, Southern California School of Medicine, University of California at San Francisco Health Science Center, and Albert Einstein College of Medicine have managed to involve an unusually large number of students and have even won some reforms.

There is, however, a group of medical students and young physicians that finds SHO rather mild. This new breed of radical students, internists, and residents is to a great extent unorganized and their actions are autonomous and independent.

WHILE IN THE HOSPITAL, I HAVE BEEN VISITED BY SOME OF THE NEW REBELS. THE FIRST TWO, I THOUGHT TO BE THE HOSPITAL ODD-BALLS. WHEN THE NUMBER ROSE TO TWENTY-FIVE, I WAS CONVINCED SOME SORT OF REBELLION WAS TAKING PLACE. Currently, there is a protest action going on at Jacoby Hospital (also serviced by Albert Einstein Medical School) right across the courtyard.

A week ago, three pediatric residents began giving their patients notes advising them not to pay their hospital bills and urging them to begin community agitation over the cutbacks in the Medicaid program.

The hospital administration ordered the rebels suspended but found itself met with resistance. The head of the Pediatrics Unit refused to suspend the physicians. In addition, a petition of support was circulated and twenty out of thirty fellow pediatric residents stated that, in effect, the three physicians facing suspension were acting for all of them and if they were suspended, the other twenty would resign.

The administration as of now, has held off any action fearing a palace revolt. The movement is bound to snowball. Already more militant medical students are becoming organized and working out the strategy for dramatic issue.

One student during the recent strike in a large New York mental hospital interrupted a convocation speech by Supreme Court Justice Abe Fortas with a statement of support for the strikers. A badly needed dialogue between doctors and nurses, and doctors and patients around this issue, as well as an attack on the authoritarian, forced role-playing structure of hospital life is in the works. The issue of community control over hospitals is increasingly seen as the only way of combatting the fears and suspicions ghetto residents have of the depersonalizing hospital institution.

The rebel doctors are seeking ways of contacting individuals and groups at other hospitals to broaden the base of the movement and gain support. A confrontation with the hospital administration is inevitable but the involvement of the Albert Einstein Medical School, the most liberal in the country, might prove to be a factor helpful to the rebels, an advantage other hospital rebels might not share.

This is not the only place that cracks are appearing in the bastion of medicine. I have two friends, a husband and wife, attending medical school who are determined to join the guerrillas in South America as soon as they have sufficient training in tropical diseases.

A SMALL GROUP OF DOCTORS AT ANOTHER HOSPITAL ARE CLANDESTINELY COLLECTING MEDICAL SUPPLIES NEEDED IN CUBA. Currently there is a group of young American physicians attending a conference in Cuba. Recently over eighty students (one third of the student body) at Stanford University Medical School signed a statement saying they would not participate in the Vietnam War. There is a growing list of angry young doctors willing to perform abortions or at least make referrals to others who will. A small number of doctors are agreeing to treat bullet wounds of riot victims without reporting them to the police. Last year a group of medical students broke up a meeting of the AMA convention in San Francisco and that is not the last the AMA has seen of the insurgents.

The role that physicians and medical students played in Chicago was invaluable. It was absolute war conditions for many. Chicago police refused to call ambulances or provide any assistance to the wounded, and often unconscious demonstrators, to a far greater extent than even the Walker Report suggests. Without the medical personnel and the first-aid facilities they set up, there would have been far more serious injuries and possibly deaths suffered. The medical corps proved quite brave as well as competent for they were often singled out by police for "special consideration."

All this is quite heartening and one realized how deep the movement is cutting into the American system when protest at this level of intensity from professionals begins evolving.

Doctors are not the only group of professionals in rebellion. Young militant lawyers are willing to confront the system in new more dramatic ways. Gus Reischback, a law student, was recently brought before a tribunal of professors at Columbia University Law School facing suspension for his role in the strike. His fellow students broke up the tribunal and drove the inquisitors from their bench. They installed a people's court and tried the judges instead.

My attorney, twenty-seven year old Jerry Lefcourt, is typical of the new breed. His attitude is totally political. His arguments in court are given more consideration for their propaganda value than for just freeing a client. His clients who include the New York Panthers and Columbia SDS students would have it no other way. The old ACLU attitude of dress nice, keep your mouth shut and be reasonable is not only missing from the repertory of these new lawyers, it is in fact, scorned.

The swelling of our ranks with doctors, engineers, lawyers, military tacticians, and the like is a most encouraging sign. This corrupt system we live under is manned by engineers of one sort or another, History majors and poets are useless appendages. Professionals who know how to put things together and take things apart are not so expendable. It seems like it isn't such a barren winter after all.

HAPPY VALENTINE'S DAY

Yippie! You are one of 30,000 lucky persons being sent from this freshly-rolled marihuana cigarette. We are doing this in order to clear the garbage from the air. Here are some FACTS:

- * Marihuana has been used for over 2500 years throughout the world.
- * Scientific research at the University of Michigan and Boston University show marihuana to be as harmless as coffee. Here is what an official study carried on by the British Government had to say: "Marihuana is much less dangerous than amphetamines, barbituates, and also less dangerous than alcohol."
- * Marihuana is not habit-forming any more than are the movies. "There are no lasting ill effects from even the acute use of marihuana" say researchers Goodman and Gilman in Pharmacological Basis of Therapeutics.
- * "The often quoted fact that pot-smoking leads to heroin addiction is just not true. Marihuana is not as dangerous as it was once thought to be" says J. Murphy of the U.S. Bureau of Drug Control.

It would be almost impossible to find more than a handful of researchers who would claim marihuana is harmful, yet the government and local authorities maintain the same attitudes they have held for years. Penalties for doing just what you are doing right now run up to life imprisonment in some states. Lindsay has just petitioned the Governor of New York to raise the penalty from one to four years for possession. In 1968, over 60,000 people in California alone were arrested for smoking pot. Nationwide statistics to be released next month will show over 200,000 arrests last year. The law is very discriminatory with blacks, hippies and other minority group members being the only ones prosecuted.

Anyway, we thought we would give you a chance to make up your own mind. It's very simple. Just get a match and light up! Plenty of people smoke pot who do not smoke regular cigarettes, and besides, you can't get cancer from it. Just inhale deeply and hold the smoke down as long as you can. You've had enough when you feel kind of nice and mellow. If you already smoke join us when we strike again on Mothers Day by sending out 10 or more joints to persons selected from the phone book. Oh yes, one more thing, don't call the cops, dig?

ABBOTT HOWARD HOFFMAN,
ALSO KNOWN AS ABBIE HOFFMAN

In the February 3, 1969, issue of the Worcester Evening Gazette, Worcester, Massachusetts, there appeared an advertisement which announced that an autograph party would be held on Friday, February 7, 1969, at 6 PM in honor of Abbie Hoffman, author of "Revolution for the Hell of It" at the Paperback Center, 568 Main Street, Worcester, Massachusetts. As part of the announcement Hoffman was scheduled to "personally autograph 100 copies of his best selling trenchant and witty book."

On February 7, 1969, [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] advised that in view of the controversial reputation of Abbott Hoffman, he and several members of the Uniformed Branch of the department had been detailed to be on duty in the vicinity of the Paperback Center, 568 Main Street, Worcester, during the period from 5:30 PM until the store closed. He advised that Hoffman arrived as scheduled and was in the store until closing time, about 9 PM. He estimated that at the most 30 or 40 persons visited the store during the time Hoffman was there.

Hoffman, after leaving the store, went to the Aurora Hotel, 654 Main Street, Worcester. He had a meal there and then left Worcester with his brother John Hoffman, 43 Wake Robin Road, Sudbury, Massachusetts. John W. Hoffman manages the family business, Worcester Medical Supply Company, 55 Chandler Street, Worcester. Abbott Hoffman planned to spend the night at his brother's home.

B. Employments

"The New York Times", a NYC daily newspaper, in its November 5, 1968 issue, on Page 59, Column 3, sets forth an article entitled "City Shutting its Hippie Center, Which Offered Youth 'Freedom'", which states in part as follows:

"The city is closing its Operation Hippie Free Store, which has been open since June at 14 Cooper Square to aid what the store director called 'voluntary dropouts from society'.

"From a peak attendance of 300 on weekdays and 450 on Saturdays last summer, the hippies dropping in have dwindled in recent days to 18. A $40,000 city allocation had been budgeted for four months, but the sum had been stretched to carry on until November 15.

"In a report to the staff of the Human Resources Administration, MITCHELL I. GINSBERG, the Administrator, said the Free Store had 'sought to serve as a bridge between society and these young people'. He said every effort should be made to reopen such a project next summer.

A 'Freedom' Available

"The Free Store had a washing machine, two showers, a record player and a television set, and it served as an exchange where people could leave old clothes that the hippies could take free.

"We let the youngsters have a freedom they were unable to find in other youth centers," said HERBERT MOORE, 38-year-old director for the Youth Services Agency. "They drew pictures on the wall, wrote poems. They came in to write books and letters."

"The operations's best-known aide was ABBIE HOFFMAN, a leader of the Yippies Youth International Party. A Human Resources Administration spokesman said Mr. HOFFMAN worked 17 days between July 15 and September 20 as a consultant who provided 'insights' at $40 a day."

(u) [REDACTED] that the Youth Service Agency (YSA), a branch of the Human Resources Administration (HRA), one of New York City's super agencies created by Mayor JOHN LINDSAY, to administrate anti-poverty and welfare programs in the City of New York, provided funds described as NYC tax-levied funds to support "Operation Hippie", an experimental project to determine whether the City of NY could operate a program to help alienated young people. b7D

As part of this experimental project, the YSA opened a "Free Store" at 14 Cooper Square in the East Village of NYC, for a four month period, June 1, 1968, to September 30, 1968, to provide basic health items and other needs to young people who had left their homes and who were found to living in unsanitary and squalid conditions for their own sake as well as for the sake of the City of NY.

ABBOTT HOFFMAN, a hippie leader, was hired by the YSA as a consultant for twenty one days at $40.00 per day during the Summer of 1968, and he worked out of the "Free Store", 14 Cooper Square, NYC, on the following dates:

The "Free Store", as part of YSA's "Operation Hippie", sought to serve as a bridge between society and the young people in the hippie community of NYC. In this regard, YSA officials reportedly felt that ABBOTT HOFFMAN's employment was entirely appropriate, since he was successful in securing acceptance of the YSA experimental project in the hippie community of NYC.

 that ABBIE HOFFMAN appeared at Criminal Courts Building, 26th and California, Chicago, before Judge WAYNE OLSON. HOFFMAN was represented by Attorneys H. TIM HOFFMAN, TED STEIN, and GERALD LEFCOURT. Assistant States Attorney ROBERT BERANEK asked for a continuance, and this request brought an argument from HOFFMAN's attorneys. They stated that they were prepared for trial and that some consideration should be given to the Defendant because of his being from out of state and the expenses incurred by him, for transportation of his witnesses and personal attorneys. They further claimed that two continuances had been granted. Assistant United States Attorney BERANEK replied that the continuances had been granted in behalf of the Defendant for the following reasons:

1. Attorney TED STEIN, who represented HOFFMAN previously, was not a licensed attorney at that time.
2. HOFFMAN was absent from court and failed to make an appearance and therefore, bond was forfeited.

The Defendant's attorney requested that the case be continued until the 27th of January, 1969, for the convenience of the Defendant. This request was turned down and a new date of December 16, 1968, was granted to comply with the Fourth Term Act (trial be heard within 120 days of arrest).

The November 26, 1968 issue of the "Sun-Times", a Chicago daily newspaper, under the headline "Yippie Sees Harassment In Continuances" stated as follows:

Criminal Court Judge WAYNE OLSON, Monday continued until December 16 the trial of Yippie leader ABBIE HOFFMAN on charges of disorderly conduct and resisting arrest.

The charges grew out of HOFFMAN's arrest here during the Democratic National Convention in August. Another disorderly conduct charge, lodged in September after HOFFMAN was arrested for carrying a switchblade knife, also is pending.

HOFFMAN, 31, who appeared in court with two attorneys and several witnesses, accused the state of seeking continuances to "harass and punish me".

He said he has spend $500.00 to $600.00 to bring lawyers and witnesses to Chicago for two scheduled hearings, only to see the state obtain a continuance each time on grounds it was not ready to go to trial.

"Of course, they're not ready," HOFFMAN said. "They know their chances of convicting me are very slim. This (the continuance) is just a continuance of their policy of harassment."

OLSON, who ordered the state to have its case against HOFFMAN ready by December 16, set December 9 for hearing motions by HOFFMAN to dismiss the charges against him.

Special Agents of the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) observed ABBIE HOFFMAN at the Cook County Courthouse, Chicago, Illinois, on January 28, 1969. HOFFMAN appeared in court on charges of disorderly conduct and resisting arrest during the Democratic National Convention. HOFFMAN also appeared in court on a city charge of carrying a concealed weapon aboard an aircraft on September 17, 1968.

In a late session on January 28, 1969, following oral arguments on various motions before the court, HOFFMAN was convicted of resisting arrest and was sentenced to one year probation, with the first 15 days to be served in the House of Correction, Chicago, Illinois. HOFFMAN was released on $1,000.00 appeal bond.

In addition, HOFFMAN was found guilty on a city charge of carrying a switchblade knife aboard an aircraft, and was fined $100.00. On this charge, HOFFMAN was released on $250.00 appeal bond.

A charge of disorderly conduct for having an obscene word written on his forehead during the Democratic National Convention was dismissed. HOFFMAN was given until March 18, 1969, to file notice of appeal.

67C On September 17, 1968, the subject was arrested by SAs [redacted] and [redacted] at 5430 West Gale Street, 16th District, Chicago Police Department, Chicago, Illinois, for violation of Title 49, Section 1472 (1), US Code, in that on or about September 17, 1968, at Chicago, he did have on his person a concealed deadly and dangerous weapon (knife with 4 inch blade) while aboard an aircraft, operated by an aircraft carrier in air transportation.

On September 18, 1968, the subject was arraigned before US Commissioner JAMES T. BALOG, at which time bond was set at $2,500. The subject was thereafter released on bond with travel restricted to NY State, and a hearing date was set for October 15, 1968.

THE SUBJECT SHOULD BE CONSIDERED ARMED AND DANGEROUS, IN VIEW OF THE NATURE OF THE ABOVE ARREST.

67D [redacted] advised that ABBIE HOFFMAN appeared before US Commissioner JAMES T. BALOG on Monday, November 25, 1968, in answer to the charge of Unlawfully carrying a concealed weapon aboard an aircraft, US Code, Title 49, Section 14-72 (1). Assistant US Attorney SAM SKINNER asked the court to dismiss the charges against the subject due to the fact that he is presently awaiting similar charge on local and state level. [REDACTED] that several of HOFFMAN's cohorts were also present for the hearing, however, their identities were not known. [REDACTED] that HOFFMAN clownfully posed for news photographers, but refused to give any statement, other than the fact that the charges would be dropped.

On November 27, 1968, Assistant US Attorney NICHOLAS M. KARZEN, Chicago, advised that the Government's complaint against HOFFMAN was dismissed on November 25, 1968. He advised the basis for the government's dismissal of the complaint was a Department of Justice memorandum, which stated a subject should not be prosecuted by the Federal government on the same charge for which he was being prosecuted by the State. In this connection, Mr. KARZEN pointed out that the subject is currently being prosecuted locally on the same set of facts on which the Federal complaint was based.

A representative of the Capitol Hill Police, advised on October 3, 1968, that at approximately 10:00 AM on that date, approximately 25 individuals were gathered in the vicinity of the Cannon Office Building on Capitol Hill, Washington, D. C., where the hearings of the House Committee on Un-American Activities (HCUA) on the Chicago disturbance were scheduled to reconvene. At about that time, ABBIE HOFFMAN arrived at a southwest door of the building wearing a shirt that appeared to have been made from an American flag. He was placed under arrest by the US Capitol Police and charged with defacing the American flag. HOFFMAN was placed under $3,000.00 bond and scheduled for jury trial on November 20, 1968.

The files of the Office of the Clerk of Court, Criminal Division, District of Columbia, Court of General Sessions, Washington, D. C., as reviewed on November 22, 1968, disclosed that ABBIE HOFFMAN, on November 20, 1968, withdrew his demand for a jury trial and was tried before Judge ANDREW J. HOWARD, Jr., who found HOFFMAN guilty of defiling the American flag by wearing a shirt resembling the flag and was sentenced to pay a fine of $100.00 or serve 30 days in jail.

HOFFMAN moved that the case be appealed and has been allowed to remain free on personal bond pending the appeal.

H. Foreign Travel

The files of the Passport Office, United States Department of State (USDS), reviewed by a representative of the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) on October 1, 1968, disclosed that ABBOTT HOWARD HOFFMAN was issued passport number 780881 on September 21, 1958, at Washington, D. C., to travel to Russia, England, France, Italy, Spain, Belgium, and Austria for a stay of two months for the purpose of education.

The file also disclosed that HOFFMAN was issued passport number J-348844 on April 11, 1968, at New York, New York. In his application dated April 11, 1968, at New York, New York, he stated his intention to depart from New York City via ship about July 1, 1968, for a stay of three months. He stated that he intended to visit Western Europe in general and that the purpose of the trip was for writing and research. The passport is valid for three years travel to all countries except Albania, Cuba, and those portions of China, Korea, and Viet Nam under Communist control.

On September 12, 1968, SAs of the FBI observed a press conference held by the YIP at City Hall, New York City, from 12:15 pm to 12:30 pm.

During the course of the press conference KEITH LAMPE announced that some Yippies from New York were leaving for Prague, Czechoslovakia, on the 18th of September, to support the Czechoslovakians struggle against the Russian aggressors and the United States exploiters of the aggression by the Russians.

KEITH LAMPE stated that the individuals planned to stop in London, Stockholm, and Essen (Germany), where they planned to pick up additional supporters.

The April, May, and June, 1966 issue of "Rights", a self-described publication of the Emergency Civil Liberties Committee (ECLC), reflects that PAUL KRASSNER, Editor of "The Realist" was a new member of the ECLC National Council.

A characterization of the National Emergency Civil Liberties Committee (NECLC) formerly known as the ECLC is contained in the appendix hereto.

On September 18, 1968, from 10:51 AM to 11:14 AM, an SA of the FBI observed ABBIE HOFFMAN conduct a press conference with Chicago newspaper and television news media representatives in the lobby of the United States Federal Building, Chicago, Illinois. During this press conference, HOFFMAN announced he planned to depart the United States on Sunday, September 22, 1968, with a group of United States Yippie type people. He refused to identify members of the group because he did not want to have them delayed in their planned travel, for a meeting with 5,000 Yippie type people in Elsen, Germany. The assembly in Germany is to include many "rock type bands and singers".

The purpose of the assembly is to march to the Czech border to confront Russian authority. The group plans to march to Prague, if they are permitted to cross the Czech border. They will hold a music festival in Prague for the expressed purpose of confronting the Russian "pigs". HOFFMAN explained that the Russian "pigs" are regarded as Russian Government and police authority. The group, including HOFFMAN, that is to depart the United States allegedly have United States passports, but do not have visas for entry to Czechoslovakia.

He asserted he and YIP do not approve of Russian "pig" oppression in Prague any more than Chicago "pig" oppression which occurred during the DNC. The group does not expect any different kind or type of physical oppression from the Russian "pigs", than that encountered by YIP from Chicago "pigs". He observed "Pigs are pigs everywhere and beating is beating everywhere". If the group is not permitted to cross the Czech border, members will attempt infiltration of the border in small units for an ultimate gathering in Prague for the Russian "pig" confrontation music festival.

HOFFMAN stated his plans are now uncertain for the Prague trip because of the pending Federal charge against him. He will determine his legal status from his attorney. If he decides to proceed to Prague he will probably never return to the United States.

He noted even though a lot of work needs to be done in Europe, he did not like to go to Europe under circumstances which would prevent his return to the United States. He stated he wants to be permitted to return to the United States because a lot of work remains to be finished in this country. He asserted his series of recent arrests in Chicago are harrassment and revenge tactics by "Government Pigs" to prevent him from carrying on with his work. He pointed out he has been arrested 23 times and never convicted, and the current arrests are a continuation of "Pig determination" to stop his work.

He advised he voluntarily returned to Chicago to answer city criminal charges against him, which grew out of activity at the DNC. He observed the charges against him are absurd and he could not have been extradited for return to Illinois to be tried for his alleged offenses. He reported he voluntarily returned to Chicago to obtain court permission to leave the United States for his planned trip to Prague. He pointed out that the City of Chicago obscenity charge against him is ridiculous in its being based on his arrest for having an obscene word printed on his forehead. He observed such action by him is not a violation of law. HOFFMAN reported that the nation's outstanding freelance photographer is going to exhibit a large, face portrait of HOFFMAN with the obscene word printed on his forehead, which was taken during the demonstration activity at the DNC, in a photography show. HOFFMAN surmised he will be considered, at the very least, an art object.

He commented that the Federal charge regarding a crime on an aircraft is ridiculous. He asserted he did not commit a criminal act on the aircraft. The knife in his possession when arrested was a $3 pen knife purchased in New York City, which he voluntarily surrendered to Chicago police "pigs". The knife was not a switchblade and was not a dangerous weapon. He asserted, "I'm living in a police state, but that's the way it goes in this country from the pigs". HOFFMAN confirmed he is under contract with Dell Publication Company of New York to write a book due for release sometime in October, 1968, entitled ~~"Revolution for the Hell of It"~~. He stated he may make a million dollars from publication of this book and from publication of a children's book he is in the process of writing.

If he makes money from the book to be published in October, he will offer $10,000 to each Chicago police officer who joins with YIP or possibly he will just burn the money.

He stated he does not need money, does not work, and does not ever plan to work because he is a passive revolutionary artist. He observed everything is free, "who needs money?" He reported he is in the process of completely redeveloping New York City and has things there well underway. From 14th Avenue on, things are well organized; "free sex, free narcotics, the world is a ball". He invited everyone to join the free activity in his section of New York City. HOFFMAN observed he has done such a good job in New York City he does not know why he wants to leave it. He asked, "Why I'm thinking of going to Prague I don't know".

HOFFMAN also confirmed he has been approached by unidentified motion picture concerns all with propositions for making movies of his life story. He stated he does not plan to play the starring role in the movie because he is not a movie star. He asserted, if JAMES DEAN were still alive he would choose him for the role.

HOFFMAN stated that "he loved" Chicago Mayor RICHARD DALEY's film concerning demonstration activity in Chicago that occurred during the DNC which was entitled "What Trees Have They Planted?" "It was magnificent, excellent and groovy." HOFFMAN observed the film is exactly what the underground movement wants exhibited. He revealed that he made a request of NBC and CBS, without a request for equal time, for the TV networks to air the program nationally without edit or further comment. HOFFMAN observed that there were only two critical comments he would make concerning the film. The first was that the Chicago professor who narrated the film was boring. The second criticism was that the film reported that no one was seriously hurt during the demonstration activity. HOFFMAN said the statement concerning serious injury was not exactly correct because a 17 year old boy from Sioux City, Iowa, DEAN JOHNSON, was shot and killed by a Chicago "cop" during the demonstration activity. HOFFMAN stated he has heard from radio and television stations across the nation that his life has been threatened on at least 25 separate occasions since the Chicago DNC demonstration activity. He stated during the time he was in the custody of the Chicago Police Department after being arrested during DNC demonstration activity a Chicago police officer by the name of HENDLEY (phonetic spelling) showed HOFFMAN a brass bullet and told him "this bullet has got your name on it". HOFFMAN said "are you kidding?", when asked by reporters at the press conference if he was going to make a complaint to either local or Federal officials concerning the alleged threats on his life. HOFFMAN stated FBI agents visited him every third day in New York City to obtain background information concerning people and asked where finances come from for YIP activity and also ask for information concerning his own activity. HOFFMAN stated he has asked FBI agents why they do not investigate police brutality in Chicago, and in all cities across the nation. He asserted all the FBI agents do is laugh at these suggestions.

HOFFMAN reported he was shot by the Ku Klux Klan, when he was working in the civil rights movement in Mississippi. He reported on that occasion he furnished FBI agents complete information concerning the shooting. HOFFMAN said all the FBI did on that occasion was to "just take notes and nothing has been done about it to this day".

HOFFMAN predicted YIP would continue with "theatre activity" in the United States and would appear at polls on election day and vote for their selected candidate; the "pig". He stated "theatrical events" would replace demonstration activity as such by YIP in the future and would occur in opposition to every candidate for national office.

HOFFMAN stated the American Civil Liberties Union (ACLU) is "hokey, a phony, publicity grabbing outfit that let the movement down during the Chicago activity". He noted that plans had been made prior to the Chicago demonstration activity for the ACLU to set up a procedure to handle arrests, bail, and prosecution activity concerning demonstrators who were arrested. The ACLU people did nothing, but sit in their fancy offices in Chicago during demonstration activity, while the people in the streets were being beaten to death. ACLU did not have anyone at the demonstration scenes and did not have any organization set up to handle the arrest problems of the demonstrators.

HOFFMAN reported the Chicago Legal Defense Committee (CLDC), 127 North Dearborn Street, Chicago, Illinois, is handling YIP and opposition movement legal problems that developed during DNC demonstration activity and these matters will be pursued. HOFFMAN stated ACLU is through as legal representative of the movement.

NY 100-161445

A man with HOFFMAN identified himself as EDWARD TED STEIN, co-chairman of CLDC, and advised he had represented HOFFMAN at the United States Commissioner's hearing in Chicago. STEIN said he is from New York City, a licensed attorney of New York State and that he moved to Chicago prior to the DNC to set up CLDC for the assistance of arrested demonstrators. STEIN advised he is not licensed to practice law in Illinois, but can practice law in United States courts sitting in Illinois. STEIN stated CLDC is in the process of securing affidavits and statements from witnesses for the purpose of preparing over $100,000,000 worth of civil law suits against the City of Chicago and Mayor RICHARD DALEY for injury and damage resulting from activity that occurred during the DNC.

[REDACTED] and that numerous demonstrations were held in Chicago, Illinois, during the period of the DNC held in Chicago, Illinois, August 25 to 30, 1968.

In this regard, [REDACTED] that at 9:00 p.m. on August 27, 1968, a program including entertainment and speakers began at the coliseum on Wabash Street and 12th Street, Chicago, Illinois, with approximately 300 to 400 persons present.

NY 100-161445

ED SANDERS of the Fugs served as the master of ceremonies and the speakers included DAVID DELLINGER, PAUL KRASSNER, DICK GREGORY, PHIL VOCHS, ED SANDERS, and ABBIE HOFFMAN.

The speeches were anti-establishment and the program ended at approximately 12:30 a.m. on August 28, 1968.

 that at 3:30 p.m. on August 28, 1968, DICK GREGORY, who was leading a demonstration at the Hilton Hotel in Chicago, Illinois, with approximately 1500 to 2000 persons in attendance, announced that a march would take place at the Amphitheater and everyone was urged to start marching. 67D

Approximately 700 to 1000 people began to march down Michigan Avenue in an orderly manner. When the marchers reached 18th Street, they were confronted with soldiers with fixed bayonets.

At this point, ABBIE HOFFMAN of the Yippies addressed the soldiers and yelled "Take me to your leader". A policeman appeared and told HOFFMAN that no one would be allowed beyond that point and that they should disperse and leave the area.

After a short discussion with the policeman, the demonstrators followed DICK GREGORY back to Grant Park without incident. 67D

[REDACTED] that the NMC filed a suit on that date in the United States District Court, Northern District of Illinois (NDI), in an attempt to stop a Federal Grand Jury Investigation of Chicago disorders during the DNC. (u)

[REDACTED] the suit asks that United States Attorney General RAMSEY CLARK and United States Attorney THOMAS A. FORAN, NDI, be prohibited from presenting evidence to the Grand Jury and calls for the establishment of a panel of three Federal Judges to rule on the constitutionality of the anti-riot provisions of the 1968 Anti-Riot Act. (u)

A review of the records of the Clerk of Court's Office, United States District Court, NDI, on October 3, 1968, by an SA of the FBI, reflects a Bill of Complaint for Injunction and Declaratory Judgment, was filed by the NMC on October 2, 1968, under docket number 68C1820, which complaint lists the defendants as THOMAS A. FORAN, United States Attorney, NDI, and RAMSEY CLARK, United States Attorney General. Plaintiffs named are NMC individually, as well as DAVID DELLINGER, Chairman of NMC, RENNIE DAVIS, Project Director of the NMC, THOMAS HAYDEN, Project Co-Director of the NMC, and JERRY RUBIN and ABBIE HOFFMAN, both organizers and members of the YIP. (u)

The complaint charges that the provisions of the 1968 Anti-Riot Act violated the freedom of speech, press, assembly, association, thought, belief, and petition. It was contended the provisions of this act prohibit freedom of travel and use of interstate facilities. (u)

D. Protest of FBI Harassment

[REDACTED] 19th Precinct, New York City Police Department (NYCPD), advised on September 24, 1968, that he had received a telephone call from HENRY DI SUVERO, Director of the NECLC, advising him that the NECLC would have up to 100 people at the FBI Office, 201 East 69th Street, New York, New York, from 2:00 pm to 3:00 pm, on September 25, 1968, to hold a press conference and demonstrate to protest subpoenas issued by the HCUA to individuals who participated in the Chicago demonstrations during the DNC in August, 1968. 67C

SECRET 67C

[REDACTED] Bureau of Special Services (BSS), NYCPD, advised on September 24, 1968, that he had learned from HENRY DI SUVERO on that date that he and RAMONA RIPPSTON, the Co-Director of the NECLC, would lead the press conference at the FBI Office in New York City, on September 25, 1968, and that ABBIE HOFFMAN, a YIP leader, and DAVID DELLINGER, National Chairman of the NMC, would participate in the demonstration.

[REDACTED] made available a copy of a press release issued by the NECLC which states in part as follows:

620 (u)

"The National Emergency Civil Liberties Committee announced today that two of the four persons who have been subpoenaed before the House Un-American Activities Committee will hold a press conference tomorrow Wednesday, September 25, at 2:00 pm in front of the office of the FBI at 201 East 69th Street, New York City.

"ABBIE HOFFMAN, leader of the Yippies, and DAVID DELLINGER of the National Mobilization Committee, who have been subpoenaed together with RENNIE DAVIS, another leader of the Chicago protest will be at the conference.

"The speakers at the press conference will expose the extensive nationwide harassment of Chicago protestors. Legal Defense for the Subpoenaed persons will be provided by the National Lawyers' Guild, Law Center for Constitutional Rights and National Emergency Civil Liberties Committee.

"The House Un-American Activities Committee will open hearings on October 1. Witnesses friendly to the Committee will appear on October 1 and 2. ABBIE HOFFMAN, DAVID DELLINGER, TOM HAYDEN, and JERRY RUBIN will be called starting October _."

(u)

SAs of the FBI at 2:00 pm on September 25, 1968, observed a group of 15 hippie-type individuals hold a disorganized press conference in front of the FBI building at 201 East 69th Street, New York City.

(u)

ABBIE HOFFMAN, the spokesman for the group, stated that they were present to protest the FBI sending agents to their homes everyday for the past two weeks and harassing them. He stated that he has been subpoenaed along with JERRY RUBIN, DAVID DELLINGER, RENNIE DAVIS and THOMAS HAYDEN by the HCUA. He stated that they also came to put "something" on the FBI door. He stated that "his agent, Mr. SCHOLL", asked him to come up to the FBI Office to see him. He also stated that Tokyo Rose would put a leaflet on the FBI door. (u)

ANITA HOFFMAN, who identified herself as Tokyo Rose, was then observed attempting to post a leaflet on the FBI door which read as follows:

"We demand an end to the current wave of FBI harassment. If this does not cease Tokyo Rose will stage weekly Love-Ins in this building.

"The Yippies

"P.S. 1/10 of a gram of LSD plus 58 water-coolers = 421 FBI Drop-Outs."

A New York City policeman prevented ANITA HOFFMAN from posting the leaflet on the FBI door and made the leaflet available to the FBI.

RAMONA RIPSTON then appeared at the press conference and she described herself as a co-director of the NECLC. She stated the NECLC and the NLG will provide legal defense for those individuals subpoenaed by the HCUA, and will appear in Washington, D.C., to represent them. She also announced that RENNIE DAVIS and DAVID DELLINGER will hold a press conference on Friday, September 27, 1968, at noon, location of which had not been set to date.

J. LEFCOURT, ABBIE HOFFMAN's attorney, stated at the press conference that they would allow the HCUA to expose itself as a witch hunter.

ABBIE HOFFMAN also announced that while he and the others appear before the HCUA hearings, in Washington, D. C., beginning October 1, 1968, thirty groups, including the SDS, will demonstrate in Washington, D. C. He also announced there would be a rally, Sunday, September 29, 1968, in Washington, D. C. and that another rally would be held on Tuesday night, October 1, 1968, at Georgetown University.

SECRET

The press conference ended at 2:15 pm; however, various individuals continued interviews at the insistence of the press. During one of these interviews, ABBIE HOFFMAN made disparaging remarks concerning the Director of the FBI, J. EDGAR HOOVER.

By 2:40 pm, all of the individuals attending the press conference had dispersed.

SAs of the FBI obtained a copy of an NECLC news release dated September 25, 1968, following a meeting of the NMC held in the Commodore Hotel in New York City on September 27, 1968. (u)

This news release stated in part as follows:

"The National Emergency Civil Liberties Committee today condemned the forthcoming House Un-American Activities Committee hearings as an 'attempt by the Johnson Administration to use every mechanism at its disposal to legitimize the action of Mayor DALEY and the Chicago police. It is a continuation of the crack-down on dissent which began in Chicago under the aegis of Mayor DALEY, but it is now being openly taken over by the Federal Government'." (u)

"Both the HUAC hearings and the harassment by the FBI of persons who were in Chicago--including delegates to the Convention shows that the government is not really interested in an investigation of what happened in Chicago, but in discrediting the peace movement and the people who went to Chicago to exercise their constitutional rights'." (u)

"In all of its history the House Un-American Activities Committee has functioned only to penalize individual Americans for exercising their rights to free speech, press, assembly and association and to stifle such exercise on the part of others by creating fear of similar penalties'." (u)

"The National Emergency Civil Liberties Committee said that they, the National Lawyers Guild and the Law Center for Constitutional Rights were providing legal representation for the people who have been subpoenaed DAVID DELLINGER, TOM HAYDEN, ABBIE HOFFMAN, JERRY RUBIN, and RENNIE DAVIS who received his subpoena today. (u)

"ABBIE HOFFMAN, at a press conference this afternoon announced plans for a week of demonstrations next week in Washington, D. C. against HUAC and he called upon the FBI to stop harassing him." (u)

E. "Pig For President" Rally
September 28, 1968

67D

On September 28, 1968, an SA of the FBI observed a rally at 12:00 noon on that date sponsored by the VREWV at Pier 52, Gansevoort Street and the Hudson River, New York City.

A skit was performed where a live pig was nominated for President of the United States. An individual dressed in black representing an anarchist attempted to assassinate the pig and was thrown into the Hudson River.

Placards displayed read as follows:

"Pig For President"

"Dump the Hump and Free the Pig"

The rally ended at about 12:30 pm, at which time the participants marched to Tompkins Square, New York City, for a "pignic" and held a rally for ELDRIDGE CLEAVELAND. This rally disbanded at 2:30 pm.

[REDACTED] that as of that date an individual by the name of ABBOTT HOFFMAN was registered at the Congressional Hotel, Washington, D. C. He stated that HOFFMAN was among those individuals registered at the hotel who had been subpoenaed to appear before the HCUA. Hearings began October 1, 1968, in connection with the disturbances during the National Democratic Party Convention in Chicago.

A representative of the Capitol Hill Police advised on October 1, 1968, that a subcommittee on HCUA convened at approximately 10:25 a.m. that date in room 311 of the Canon Office Building, House of Representatives. ABBIE HOFFMAN and JERRY RUBIN arrived at the hearing with approximately 20 followers. HOFFMAN was carrying a bullwhip and RUBIN was shirtless, wearing beads and a bandolier of rifle ammunition and also carrying a toy plastic rifle. HOFFMAN and RUBIN were ushered from the building but both were readmitted when HOFFMAN surrendered his bullwhip and RUBIN surrendered his rifle ammunition. At approximately 3:25 p.m. RUBIN, HOFFMAN, and about 12 other individuals stood in silent protest during the hearing. When they failed to heed the request of the Chairman, Representative RICHARD ICHORD of Missouri, to be seated, the subcommittee ruled that these 14 individuals be escorted by the Capitol police from the hearing room. They were removed and then released.

U# [REDACTED] that on that date a press conference was held from 10:00 a.m. to 11:00 p.m. at the Congressional Hotel, Washington, D. C. Included in the individuals at this press conference was ABBOTT HOFFMAN and JERRY RUBIN. HOFFMAN and RUBIN identified themselves as leaders of the YIP. HOFFMAN stated that he was recently arrested by the FBI while boarding a plane and charged with carrying a deadly weapon. He stated the only thing he had in his possession was a pocket knife but, nevertheless, he was held on $2500 bail and confined to the island of Manhattan. He stated he was going to FBI Headquarters with binoculars at approximately 3:30 p.m., October 2, 1968, to "see what they are up to".

U# [REDACTED] that a rally was held in the square behind the library at George Washington University (GWU), Washington, D. C., on the evening of October 2, 1968, beginning around 8:00 p.m. ABBOTT HOFFMAN made a brief appearance at this rally, which was held to protest the HCUA hearings.

A representative of the Capitol Hill Police advised on October 3, 1968, that at approximately 10:00 a.m., October 3, 1968, approximately 25 individuals were gathered in the vicinity of the Canon Office Building on Capitol Hill where hearings of the HCUA were scheduled to reconvene. At this time ABBOTT HOFFMAN arrived at a southeast door of the building wearing a shirt that appeared to have been made from an American flag. He was arrested by the United States Capitol Police and charged with defacing the American flag. HOFFMAN was placed on the $3000 bond and was scheduled for a jury trial on November 20, 1968.

At the time of his arrest HOFFMAN listed his address as 30 St. Mark's Place, New York City, and his occupation as "revolutionary artist". He stated he was born November 30, 1936, at Worcester, Massachusetts.

NY 100-161445

At the time of HOFFMAN's arrest, his wife, ANITA HOFFMAN, was also arrested and charged with interfering with an arrest. She stated that she was born on March 16, 1942, at Baltimore, Maryland. The charge against ANITA HOFFMAN was subsequently dismissed.

A representative of the MPD, Intelligence Division, advised that as of 11 pm, October 3, 1968, ABBOTT HOFFMAN was incarcerated in the District of Columbia jail, Washington, D. C.

A representative of the Capitol Hill Police advised on October 4, 1968, at approximately noon that date, ABBOTT HOFFMAN was released from police custody to enable him to attend the afternoon hearings of the HCUA. HOFFMAN was in attendance at the hearing for the afternoon session but did not testify.

[REDACTED] that HOFFMAN checked out of the Congressional Hotel, Washington, D. C., at approximately four pm on October 4, 1968.

G. Press Conference in Times

[REDACTED]

SAs of the FBI, at 12:00 noon, on October 28, 1968, observed approximately 15 individuals, including ABBIE HOFFMAN, ANITA HOFFMAN, BRADFORD FOX, PAUL KRASSNER, and KEITH LAMPE, all affiliated with the YIP, assemble in front of the United States Armed Forces Recruiting Station in Times Square, 43rd Street, and Broadway, New York City.

NY 100-161445

Leaflets announcing the welcome of "HANOI ROSE" from "Tic Tok, North Viet Nam" at the Recruiting Station and announcing her future appearance at a "Freedom Booth" at Krightstown Center, Fort Dix, New Jersey, from 1:00 pm to 6:00 pm, on November 3, 1968, were distributed.

In addition, roses were also distributed to passersby.

"HANOI ROSE", wearing an Oriental dress, gave a press interview and announced through KEITH LAMPE, who is affiliated with the YIP, and who acted as her interpreter, that she came to the United States to "look the GIs in the eye".

ABBIE HOFFMAN announced that "HANOI ROSE" would appear at other military bases in the United States, naming a few as being Fort Dix, New Jersey, Fort Devens, Massachusetts, and Fort Ord, California. The appearance at Fort Ord, California, will be coordinated with the YIP group on the West Coast who will join with the Black Panthers for this appearance.

ABBIE HOFFMAN also announced that there will be an "Election Celebration" at Times Square in New York City, on November 5, 1968, at 10:00 pm, at which time they would eat their presidential candidate, the "pig", at an undisclosed restaurant.

The interviews with the press terminated at 12:45 pm and the group dispersed.

He stated that the NMC and SDS would join the Yippies in this activity which was part of National GI Week called by the NMC. He also stated that approximately 500 people were expected to attend the activities at Fort Dix, New Jersey, from New York City.

H. Election Day Activities in San Francisco, California

"The Black Panther", a newspaper published weekly by the BPP, in its October 5, 1968 issue, contained the following article signed by STEWART E. ALBERT, ABBY HOFFMAN, and JERRY RUBIN, concerning proposals for disrupting the national elections on November 5, 1968:

"Come into the streets on November 5, Election Day. Vote with your feet. Rise up and abandon the creeping meatball! Demand the bars be open. Make music and dance at every red light. A festival of life in the streets and parks throughout the world. The American election represents death, and we are alive.

"Come all you rebels, youth spirits, rock minstrels, bomb throwers, bank robbers, peacock freaks, toe worshippers, poets, street folk, liberated women, professors and body snatchers: it is Election Day and we are everywhere.

"Don't vote in a jackass-elephant-cracker circus. Let's vote for ourselves. Me for President. We are the revolution. We will strike and boycott the election and create our own reality.

"Can you dig it: in every metropolis and hamlet of America Boycotts, strikes, sit-ins, pickets, lie-ins, pray-ins, feel-ins, (obscene), at the polling places.

NY 100-161445

"Nobody goes to work. Nobody goes to school. Nobody votes. Everyone becomes a life actor of the street doing his thing, making the revolution by freeing himself and (obscene) the system.

"Ministers dragged away from polling places. Free chicken and ice cream in the streets. Thousands of kazoos, drums, tambourines, triangles, pots and pans, trumpets, street fairs, firecrackers--a symphony of life on a day of death. LSD in the drinking water.

"Let's parade in the thousands to the places where the votes are counted and let murderous racists feel our power.

"Force the National Guard to protect every polling place in the country. Brush your teeth in the streets. Organize a sack race. Join the rifle club of your choice. Freak out the pigs with exhibitions of snake dancing and karate at the nearest pig pen.

"Release a Black Panther in the Justice Department. Hold motorcycle races a hundred yards from the polling places. Fly an American flag out of every house so confused voters can't find the polling places. Wear costumes. Take a burning draft card to SPIRO AGNEW.

"Stall for hours in the polling places trying to decide between NIXON and HUMPHREY and WALLACE. Take your clothes off. Put wall posters up all over the city. Hold block parties. Release hundreds of greased pigs in pig uniforms downtown.

"Check it out in Europe and throughout the world thousands of students will march on the USA embassies demanding to vote in the election cause Uncle Pig controls the world. No domination without representation.

"Let's make 2-300 Chicago's on election day.

"On election day let's pay tribute to rioters, anarchists, Commies, runaways, draft dodgers, acid freaks, snipers, beatniks, deserters, Chinese spies. Let's exercise all politicians, generals, publishers, businessman, Popes, American Legion, AMA, FBI, narcos, informers.

"Begin now: resist oppression as you feel it. Organize and begin the word of mouth communication that is the basis of all conspiracies. Coordinate information and ideas by writing to Youth International Party, ~~ELDRIDGE~~ CLEAVER, Ramparts Magazine, 495 Beach Street, San Francisco, California, 94133.

An SA of the FBI observed an open press conference held by RENNARD "RENNIE" DAVIS, Chicago coordinator of the NMC, at 11:00 a.m. on September 18, 1968, at the Young Women's Christian Association (YWCA), 37 South Wabash Avenue, Chicago, Illinois, at which he announced plans to "strike" the three major presidential candidates on Election Day, November 5, 1968.

DAVIS said the NMC election program included:

1. A voters strike against HUMPHREY, NIXON, and WALLACE.
2. A National GI Week on November 1 to 5, 1968, to dramatize American support for the right of soldiers to return to civilian life.
3. An anti-war demonstrations across the country where the major candidates would speak in the fall.

ABBIE HOFFMAN also spoke briefly. He stated he arrived in Chicago by plane on September 17, 1968, and was unjustly arrested by the Federal Government for carrying a concealed weapon, a knife, aboard an aircraft. He stated he uses the knife to clean his teeth. He also said he was met at the Chicago airport by twelve "pigs" ("pigs" is a term commonly used by the Yippies to describe policemen) and was arrested for failing to appear in court in Chicago during the first week of September, 1968, as a result of his arrest during the DNC in Chicago. He stated he did not appear in Chicago for his scheduled court appearance because he has received numerous threats against his life. He added that he has been arrested 23 times but has never been convicted.

He made the statement that "love is shooting a pig" and when asked by reporters if he meant by this statement to shoot a policeman, he said no and stated that they were irritating policemen by calling them names like "commies". He also criticized the ACLU stating the ACLU had led them to believe they could obtain permits from the City of Chicago to use the parks during the DNC, but they did not get the permits and the ACLU did not give them enough support in attempting to get these permits.

Wd [REDACTED] that the NMC and the Fifth Avenue Viet Nam Peace Parade Committee reserved the Grand Ballroom of the Diplomat Hotel, on West 43rd Street, New York City, from 6:00 p.m. on November 5, 1968, until 1:00 a.m. on November 6, 1968, to watch the television returns of the presidential election and to celebrate their anti-election activities.

u [REDACTED] that a rally under the auspices of the "Inauguration Day Committee" was held at Mandell Hall, University of Chicago Campus, Chicago, on November 24, 1968. Approximately 400 persons attended this rally.

ABBY HOFFMAN of the Youth International Party out of New York City was one of the speakers. He recalled his arrest in Chicago during the Democratic National Convention and called for a mobilization in Washington, D. C. for a massive demonstration to take place on January 20, 1969. The demonstration will take place on the Campus of George Washington University in Washington, D. C. and will coincide with the inauguration of the President. He urged all to come and "do their thing".

There were also movies shown of protest demonstrations taking place at the Pentagon in Washington, D. C. over a year ago as well as movies of the demonstrations at the Democratic National Convention, Chicago, during August, 1968.

PAUL KRASSNER, Editor of "Realist", a New York City underground newspaper, also spoke and urged that the solidarity that prevailed during the Democratic National Convention be maintained and also urged that progress forces throughout the country mobilize for the Inauguration Day activities. [REDACTED] Love concerning the rally held on November 24, 1968, at the University of Chicago Campus, Chicago, Illinois.

The "Chicago American", a Chicago, Illinois daily newspaper, in its November 26, 1968 issue, contained an article entitled "Students' Yippies Show a Real Turkey" which stated in part as follows:

"A demonstration of why the radicals' revolutionary movement is falling apart was given Sunday night at the University of Chicago. The revolutionaries staged an event for some 400 students in Mandel hall. It was a bomb, a bust, a turkey.

"The radicals were guilty of an unforgivable sin-- they bored their audience.

"The event was the Chicago premiere of the Yippies' 15-minute film about the rioting in Chicago during the Democratic convention. It is part of the radicals' answer to Mayor DALEY's TV film called 'What Trees Do They Plant'.

Ad

"ABBIE HOFFMAN, the chief Yippie, gave a talk before the film. HOFFMAN is guest in the city for the hearing of various court cases against him resulting from the riots.

"ABBIE HOFFMAN is dangerous because he has a sense of humor. He is one of the modern masters of the put-on. He has a great zest for life. He stood on the stage and chided the students for being in college, for seeking a degree. 'What's a degree? What do you want with money?', he asked with the grin of a man who seems to be having a real ball without money.

"The film is effective because it is a mix of low comedy and high tragedy. The technique is to make quick cuts from old movie shots burlesquing the establishment to films taken during the rioting, and showing, naturally enough, policemen beating demonstrators.

"They've also got hold of some newsreel clips Mayor DALEY would like to forget. One is his slip of the tongue in a press conference when he said 'The police are not here to create disorder. They are here to preserve disorder'. This is constantly repeated (with DALEY's voice) during the melee.

"So the Yippies have a weapon. They'll show this film on campuses across the country, and the kids will laugh and they will be horrified at the beatings and they'll hate Chicago.

"But I think they'll also laugh the Yippies off the campus if the scene at the U. of C. is duplicated.

"HOFFMAN talked, the movie was shown, his whole thing took less than an hour, and the Yippies had made points with the Chicago students. They should have quit. They didn't."

The November 1, 1968 issue of "Win" magazine, self-described as a publication of the War Resisters' League in cooperation with the New York Workshop in Nonviolence, on pages 12 to 13, contained an article by ABBIE HOFFMAN entitled "Life Among the Dinosaurs" and which was described as the epilogue of a forthcoming book entitled "Revolution for the Hell of It" to be published by Dial Press.

The article by ABBIE HOFFMAN stated in part as follows:

"Tuesday, September 17, was a hell of a day. I returned to Chicago with my attorney, JERRY LEFCOURT, to stand trial for the infamous four-letter word on my forehead. I wanted to clear it up because I expected trouble at Customs when I attempted to leave to go to Prague. As we stepped off the airplane in O'Hare Airport, we were met by six of Chicago's finest. I was immediately handcuffed and arrested on a charge of jumping bail even though it was obvious to everyone I had only come back to Chicago to appear in court that afternoon.

"I was questioned in a special room in the airport and when asked to empty my pockets, I produced a pen knife I had purchased the day before in New York. It is a knife that is legal in every state of the union. The cops couldn't figure out how to open it, so dubbed it a switchblade. After I was taken to court to stand trial for the WORD and to be arraigned on a bail jumping charge (these charges were dropped), I was again arrested by the Chicago police for carrying a concealed weapon. When bail was produced on this charge, I was then arrested by the FBI and charged with 'crime aboard an aircraft'.

"The FBI is the only agency in the country that arrests you and makes it seem like they are doing you a favor....

FBI: You are now being placed under arrest for crimes aboard an aircraft.

ME: Are you kidding? All I did was goose the stewardess, what crimes?

FBI: Our instructions are to tell you only that. We must warn you that anything you say may be used against you. We'll just settle this before the U.S. Commissioner, ABBIE, it won't take long. We are sorry to inconvenience you this way.

ME: Can I call my wife and tell her I'll be home late from work?

~~SECRET~~

FBI: Yes, we think that is certainly a most reasonable request.

"In the car, driving to the Federal Building, they asked if I used any aliases. I gave them enough for three sheets of paper. They recorded them all diligently, including CASEY STENGAL, GEORGE METESKY, SPIRO AGNEW, and MURIEL HUMPHREY. Lo and behold, the Commissioner wasn't home and it was into the jail for the night. Chicago city jails, by the way, have the worst food of any jails I have ever been in. That morning I appeared before a U.S. Commissioner who looked like the guy who played the telephone booth in 'The President's Analyst'. The crimes aboard an aircraft revolved around the mysterious penknife and the judge was very serious. Here is some of the dialogue:

COMMISSIONER: When you came to Chicago, you said you were unemployed?

ME: Well, thanks to the Chicago Police, I've become a very successful writer. I just finished a book about Chicago, a children's book, and I'm working on a movie. I made $10,000 this week.

COMMISSIONER: Have you ever been arrested?

ME: I've been arrested over twenty times, but I've never been convicted. There are a lot of cops breaking the law in this country.

COMMISSIONER: Have you ever jumped bail?

ME: Only once in Mississippi, but it was under unusual circumstances.

COMMISSIONER: What were they?

ME: The Ku Klux Klan was organizing a lynching party and my friends thought it wise if I blew town.

COMMISSIONER: Does the District Attorney demand bail?

DA: The People ask $1,500 bail, your honor.

COMMISSIONER: I think I'll make that $2,500, and you are confined to Chicago and the federal district of Manhattan.

ME: Can I go to Prague?

COMMISSIONER: No.

ME: Well, if you think the U.S. Government can handle the Czechoslovakian mess better than the Yippies, you can have that one. Can I go to Massachusetts to visit my mother?

COMMISSIONER: No.

ME: Can I go above 14th Street?

COMMISSIONER: Yes, but you cannot leave Manhattan except to return to Chicago.

ME: (menacingly) I want you to know that I accuse you and the federal government of committing an unjust act of revenge.

"I turned around and walked out of the courtroom. Much to my surprise, the Commissioner did nothing.

"It had been some day. I had been fingerprinted no less than 17 times and spent most of the time in various sets of handcuffs. As I was sitting in the airplane waiting to fly back to New York, the pilot made an announcement that the flight would be delayed 15 minutes. Five men entered the airplane. Four I recognized as members of the Chicago Intelligence Division that had been following me through the convention, the other identified himself as a U.S. Marshal. He handed me a piece of paper which began 'Greetings: You are hereby commanded to appear before the House Un-American Activities Committee...' It was like receiving a high school diploma.

"The time since Chicago has been filled with persistent government harassment. On three occasions, a phony Brink's truck stopped outside our Free Store on the Lower East Side, a panel opens up and a camera begins taking photographs. I have been visited no less than five times by the FBI agents, twice by Justice Department officials, and once by the Internal Revenue Service.

"On Tuesday, October 2, we appeared before HUAC. JERRY RUBIN wore a one-man, world-conspiracy, guerrilla costume complete with toy M-16 and live ammunition. I went as an Indian with feathers, hunting knife, and a bullwhip. I also carried an electric yoyo and dazzled the committee with tricks like: 'Around-the-Capitalist-World', 'Split-the-Southern-Cracker', and 'Burning-Down-the-Town'. On the first day, the hearing was very dull. HUAC missed JOE POOL, and at one point I suggested we have five minutes of silence in his memory. When the committee refused, I accused them of being 'soft on Communism'. I persisted in asking permission to go to the bathroom and pointing out to the committee the different people in the room who were carrying guns (all capital guards; of course, but you never can tell, some sneaky Yippie might have rented a cop suit). JERRY walked around waving his gun and rattling his bells, while his girlfriend, NANCY, who was dressed as a Halloween witch, passed out incense.

"The committee dragged on with boring testimony trying to link us to Communists (many of whom were active before we were born), and even at one point to LEE HARVEY OSWALD. The acting chairman of the committee made repeated warnings against 'emotional outbursts'. By about three o'clock, I was so bored I couldn't take it any longer. I asked permission to make an emotional outburst. Permission denied, I returned to the hall and shouted 'You're full of (obscene)', so loud it shook the Capital Building. When the cops tried to jump me, I told them the Committee requested I do it in the hall. They let me go. Half an hour later our lawyers, who had been raising objections throughout the day, stood in protest with their clients. We were all hustled out by the cops and that ended Act I. Wednesday, we broke for Yom Kippur or the World Series, and the committee carried on in closed session. They heard all about the Yippie plans to assassinate Mayor DALEY and blow up a baseball diamond in Lincoln Park. A secret 'deal' was revealed that showed we had arranged with the Headhunter Motorcycle Club to provide them with girls and dope if they would furnish us ammunition. At one point, we were accused of going to Chicago 'to perform magic'.

"Thursday, I appeared in a commercially made shirt that has red and white stripes and stars on a blue background. Capital police arrested me for mutilating the flag and proceeded to rip the shirt off my back. ANITA, my wife, screamed and was arrested for felonious assault on a policeman. ANITA's charges were later dropped. I had to spend the night in jail (the judge originally set bail at $3,000, which kind of shocked everyone) and then I was detained an extra five hours by U.S. Marshals illegally. When JERRY LEFCOURT, my attorney, objected to HUAC that I was being held in the basement against the judge's court order he was hauled out of the room by security guards.

"Of course, the terms 'legal' and 'illegal' are phrases lawyers throw back and forth and have nothing to do with the reality of what's happening in the judicial system in this country. The law I was arrested under would make everyone who dresses in an Uncle Sam costume and most drum majorettes criminals. The other night, I watched PHYLLIS DILLER perform on national television in a mini-skirt that looked more like an American Flag than the shirt I wore.

"The hearings were adjourned on Thursday and we have to return December 2 to begin our testimony. I plan to reveal everything. But I must warn the committee that there is a language barrier. I requested permission to bring an interpreter to the hearings, but permission was denied. I brought her anyway, but it was still difficult to understand them. They spoke of Marx and I thought they meant Groucho. My

"interpreter said 'No, they mean KARL MARX'. They spoke of LENIN and I thought they meant JOHN LENNON. My interpreter said 'No, they mean the guy without a first name'. It was all getting very confusing, but what's to be expected when Chromosome Damage meets the DINOSAURS. One thing I will state, however, before I even testify, is that 'I am not now or have I ever been a member of the House Un-American Activities Committee'."

"The New York Times" in its December 28, 1968 issue in section seven, page three, carried a book review by JACK NEWFIELD on the book "Revolution for the Hell of It" by FREE (ABBIE HOFFMAN) which stated in part as follows:

"ABBIE HOFFMAN is a charming combination of Ernie Kovacs, Artaud, and Prince Kropotkin. He is a put-on artist, an acid head (over 70 trips), a mass-media guerrilla, and now he has anthologized his hallucinations into a book.

"Well, sort of a book, since two of the author's many gurus are Andy Warhol and Marshall McLuhan. What ABBIE has done is put between formless covers some LSD fantasies; diarylike accounts of the March on the Pentagon and the Battle of Daleyland; pictures of him and his infamous friends; clippings; random quotations from gurus like George Sorel, Lewis Carroll, and Martin Buber; a letter to Stokely Carmichael; and a self-interview a la Mailer.

"The spirit of the book is foreshadowed in the two epigrams ABBIE invokes at the start of the opening chapter. One is from the international revolutionary Che Guevara, and the other is from a television commercial for a cleansing powder. ABBIE, you must understand, is a Marxist-Lennonist-Harpo Marx and John Lennon.

"The author was once a charter member of the New Left. He worked in the 1962 peace campaign for the Senate of H. Stuart Hughes, and he paid his dues with SNCC in Mississippi and Georgia. But now ABBIE is a founder and leader of the Yippies, and he mocks SDS and Ramparts no less than he mocks Harvard and The New York Times. He writes:

"I was once in the New Left, but I outgrew it...The Left masturbates continuously, because it is essentially rooted in an academic tradition...Those papers that claim to be accurate, i.e., The New York Times, The Village Voice, Ramparts, The Nation, Commentary, that whole academic word scene is a total bore. In the end they probably distort things more than the Daily News'."

"ABBIE now prefers theater to politics. 'Drama is anything you can get away with' he writes. 'Stokely yelling 'Hell no, we won't go', that was drama, not explanation. The point is nobody gives a (bleep) anymore about troop strength, escalation, crying over napalm.'

"Between the pratfalls, put-ons and fraternal hotfoots for the New Left, ABBIE seems to intend this volume as a serious manifesto for the growing counter-culture of mind drugs, rock bands, sexual freedom, mixed media communes, Free Stores, astrology, colorful costumes and casual nudity.

"If I understand ABBIE correctly, there are three essential planks in the Yippie platform. One is street theater, satire, confrontations, put-ons, and general freakiness he calls 'monkey warfare'. Its purpose is to get on television to communicate an alternative life-style to the global village of the young. ABBIE considers youth as a distinct social class, a new, surrogate proletariat.

"Second, ABBIE stands for mind-expanding drugs, sex, freedom, games, anything that is pleasurable. This is his 'politics of ecstasy'.

"And last, he is in favor of panhandling, stealing, hustling, anything that displays contempt for the 'property fetish'. ABBIE is for free everything (especially toilets) and advocates the abolition of money.

"This does not seem to be quite the platform to win the legendary minds and hearts of the American people. I'm not even sure that it would win the minds and hearts of a majority of teeny-boppers. I fear, in fact, that it is a recipe for private amusement and public catastrophe. It does not speak at all to the needs of the propertyless--the whites of Appalachia, or Indians on reservations in South Dakota, or Mexican and Filippino farm workers in California, or Negro parents trying to win community control in Ocean Hill-Brownsville. It does not recognize the fact that 40 million other Americans

"do not have the mobility, or leisure, or economic security to drop out. And they probably wish they had the dollar bills ABBIE burned symbolically at the Stock Exchange to pay the rent with.

"ABBIE writes that 'action is the only reality; not only reality, but morality as well....Confusion is mightier than the sword...By allowing all, stealing, loving, cheating, anger, violence, trading, you become situation oriented, and as such become more effective'.

"That would be a wonderful platform for the Chicago Police Department, the Mississippi Highway Patrol and George Wallace. It is an invitation for them to 'do their thing' in the streets, and that is to play the game on the right-wing's home field. This is not a revolutionary country, or a revolutionary period. To act as though it is, and ignore the consequences, is dangerous. And the victims will not be the white, middle-class Yippies. The police--even in Chicago--still just club and Mace Yippies. But they kill blacks. In Orangeburg. In Oakland. In Washington, D. C.

"At bottom, I think the Yippies badly confuse cultural and political values. They would profit, I think, by reading a penetrating 1962 essay by WILLIAM PHILIPS (collected in 'A Sense of Present')...."

The "Berkeley Barb" in its December 29, 1968 to January 2, 1969 issue on page 11 carried an article entitled "ABBIE Out to Get Due From Fuzz" which stated in part as follows:

"ABBIE's working on a second book. First one was 'Revolution for the Hell of It' written under the pen-name FREE. This one will be a Yippie version of the battles of Lexington and Concord. The Yippie battle takes place April 19, 1975."

[REDACTED] that the subject spoke to about 350 to 500 students who were attending a National Student Revolutionary Conference at Havermeyer Hall, Columbia University, on September 20, 1968. He said that he had been arrested and could get up to 30 years in jail for his demonstrating in Chicago, Illinois, during the DNC. He told the group that he had brought four pigs to Chicago recently when he appeared for a hearing and that he was appearing before the HCUA in Washington, D. C. during October. He also stated that anyone getting elected president of the United States had to be a pig.

U
[REDACTED] that a new experimental class called a "commune" had been instituted at Richmond College, Staten Island, New York, and that the class had invited the subject to appear before it on February 20, 1969.

[REDACTED] that on February 20, 1969, the subject appeared before this class accompanied by PAUL KRASSNER and a group of hippies from Manhattan, New York, who referred to themselves as an "eternal family".

[REDACTED] that a crowd of students and teachers heard the subject talk about how the students could change the established methods of teaching but that they would have to give up the fear of being dismissed from school because of their actions.

[REDACTED] that the subject also told the group that the new administration in the United States was going to encourage the arrest of students and other dissidents and urged the students to take active steps to disrupt the courts.

The "Staten Island Advance", a Staten Island, New York daily newspaper, in its February 21, 1969 issue on page one, carried an article entitled "Yippies Meet Students at Richmond" which stated in part as follows:

"ABBY HOFFMAN, the Yippie who wore an American flag to a congressional hearing; PAUL KRASSNER, publisher of the often condemned 'Realist' and an 'eternal family' from Manhattan's Lower East Side brought pieces of an emotional puzzle to Richmond College yesterday.

"For several hours, from the ferry terminal to the eighth floor of the Richmond College building in St. George, college students, hippies and members of the Youth International Party talked--and yelled--about morality, economics, sex and freedom.

"It all began when members of an experimental class at the college, who had invited HOFFMAN, heard that he was to be arrested at the ferry terminal. Some 20 students went down to the terminal about 1:00 p.m. to hustle HOFFMAN off before he could be nabbed.

"HOFFMAN later explained that an indictment was to be read against him yesterday in Chicago for his activities during the national Democratic convention. He said he expected to be arrested sometime yesterday.

"Nearly 100 persons--students and teachers--gathered in a classroom to hear HOFFMAN speak, but at first there was only silence punctuated by the crunching of potato chips and sloshing of grape juice that someone provided.

"HOFFMAN spoke about 'the year of the heroic convict' and urged the students to make their revolutionary ideas active by disrupting courts.

"He said the NIXON administration has assumed a policy of 'heavy harassment' in the courts by encouraging and making arrests of students and dissidents.

"HOFFMAN's talk was cut short by the arrival of several members of an 'eternal family', hippies who share all and live in small, communal apartments on the Lower East Side.

"Basically, it was an exchange of ideas between young people who have rebelled economically, morally, sexually and socially against the values and ideas most of Richmond College students were studying.

"HOFFMAN pointed out that to really be involved in changing the school 'you have to give up the idea of getting a degree' and the fear of dismissal."

"The Spectrum", an official publication of the State University of New York at Buffalo (SUNYAB), in its February 14, 1969 issue on page four, carried an article entitled "Drug Symposium Starts Tuesday", which stated that drug symposium would be held at the University from February 27, 1969 through March 1, 1969, and that on March 1, 1969, at 1:00 p.m. in the Fillmore Room of Horton Hall, ABBOTT HOFFMAN and JERRY RUBIN would participate in a session on "New Worlds of Our Making; Presentations and Discussion".

An article in the "Courier Express", a daily newspaper published in Buffalo, New York, edition of March 2, 1969, written by reporter JOHN PAULY, reflects that "Yippie" leaders ABBIE HOFFMAN and JERRY RUBIN were on hand for a session of the drug symposium at the University of Buffalo on Saturday (March 1, 1969).

BLACK PANTHER PARTY

According to its official newspaper, the Black Panther Party (BPP) was started during December, 1966, in Oakland, California, to organize black people so they can take control of the life, politics, and the destiny of the black community. It was organized by BOBBY GEORGE SEALE, BPP Chairman, and HUEY P. NEWTON, BPP Minister of Defense. NEWTON is presently serving a sentence of 2 to 15 years on a conviction of manslaughter in connection with the killing of an Oakland police officer.

The official newspaper, "The Black Panther", which further describes itself as the "Black Community News Service", states that the BPP advocates the use of guns and guerrilla tactics in its revolutionary program to end oppression of the black people. Residents of the black community are urged to arm themselves against the police who are consistently referred to in the publication as "pigs" who should be killed.

"The Black Panther" issue of September 7, 1968, contains an editorial by BPP Minister of Education, GEORGE MASON MURRAY, which ends with the following:

"Black men. Black people, colored persons of America, revolt everywhere! Arm yourselves. The only culture worth keeping is a revolutionary culture. Change. Freedom everywhere. Dynamite! Black Power. Use the gun. Kill the pigs everywhere."

Included in the introduction to an article appearing in the October 5, 1968, edition of "The Black Panther" is the statement, "... we will not dissent from American Government. We will overthrow it."

Issues of "The Black Panther" regularly contain quotations from the writings of Chairman MAO Tse-tung of the People's Republic of China and feature MAO's statement that "political power grows out of the barrel of a gun."

The national headquarters of the BPP is located at 3106 Shattuck Avenue, Berkeley, California. Branches have been established at various locations throughout the United States.

THE GUS HALL - BENJAMIN J. DAVIS
DEFENSE COMMITTEE

[REDACTED] that GUS HALL, General Secretary, Communist Party, United States of America (CP, USA), stated on March 26, 1962, that the Party will form a new committee known as the Gus Hall - Benjamin J. Davis Defense Committee (H-DDC). The purpose of this committee is to raise $100,000 for the defense of HALL and DAVIS. b7D

HALL and DAVIS were indicted by the Federal Grand Jury, Washington, D.C., on March 15, 1962, charging them with violations of Sections 768 (h) and 794, Title 50, United States Code, in that they, as General Secretary and National Secretary, CP, USA, respectively, and as members of the National Board, wilfully and unlawfully failed to register for and on behalf of the CP, USA, with the Attorney General.

The indictment against DAVIS, who died on August 22, 1964, was dismissed October 9, 1964, in the United States District Court for the District of Columbia, and the indictment against HALL was dismissed in the same court on May 4, 1966.

Through a suitable pretext by a Special Agent of the Federal Bureau of Investigation on December 13, 1968, it was learned from WILLIAM L. PATTERSON, 101 West 147th Street, New York, New York, that he (PATTERSON) is Chairman of the H-DDC and that he uses his residence as its headquarters.

PATTERSON stated that although the indictments against HALL and DAVIS have been dismissed, the H-DDC would continue to fight against the Smith Act and for the Smith Act "victims" as well as for other "victims" of official "persecutions" by Federal, State and Local Governments which seeks to "offend liberals". b7D

PROGRESSIVE LABOR PARTY (PLP)

The "New York Times" city edition Tuesday, April 20, 1965, Page 27, reported that a new party of "revolutionary socialism" was formally founded on April 18, 1965, under the name of the PLP, which had been known as the Progressive Labor Movement.

According to the article, "The Progressive Labor Movement was founded in 1962, by MILTON ROSEN and MORTIMER SCHEER after they were expelled from the Communist Party of the United States for assertedly following the Chinese Communist line."

67 D [REDACTED] that the FLP held its Second National Convention in New York City, May 31 to June 2, 1968, at which time the PLP reasserted its objective of the establishment of a militant working class movement based on Marxism-Leninism. This is to be accomplished through the Party's overall revolutionary strategy of raising the consciousness of the people and helping to provide ideological leadership in the working class struggle for state power.

[REDACTED] that at the Second National Convention, MILTON ROSEN was unanimously re-elected National Chairman of the PLP and LEVI LAUB, FRED JEROME, JARED ISRAEL, WILLIAM EPTON, JACOB ROSEN, JEFFREY GORDON and WALTER LINDER were elected as the National Committee to lead the PLP until the next convention.

The PLP publishes "Progressive Labor", a bimonthly magazine; "World Revolution", a quarterly periodical; and "Challenge-Desafio", a monthly newspaper.

~~SECRET - NO FOREIGN DISSEMINATION~~APPENDIX1.~~SECRET~~STUDENTS FOR A DEMOCRATIC SOCIETY

The Students for a Democratic Society (SDS), as it is known today, came into being at a founding convention held at Port Huron, Michigan, in June, 1962. The SDS is an association of young people on the left and has a current program of protesting the draft, promoting a campaign for youth to develop a conscientious objector status, denouncing United States intervention in the war in Vietnam, and to "radically transform" the university community, and provide for its complete control by students. GUS HALL, General Secretary, Communist Party, USA, when interviewed by a representative of United Press International in San Francisco, California, on May 14, 1965, described the SDS as a part of the "responsible left" which the Party has "going for us". At the June, 1965, SDS National Convention, an anticommunist proviso was removed from the SDS constitution. In the October 7, 1966, issue of "New Left Notes", the official publication of SDS, an SDS spokesman stated that there are some Communists in SDS and they are welcome. The national headquarters of this organization as of July 24, 1968, was located in Room 206, 1608 West Madison Street, Chicago, Illinois.

Riot? Abbie Calls It Experiment

"As long as there are no myths accepted by the masses, one may go on talking of revolts indefinitely, without ever provoking any revolutionary movement."
 —George Sorel, Reflections On Violence

Abbie Hoffman, sometime writer, fulltime revolutionary and founder of the Youth International party, brought no furtive federal men this time.

He came in Saturday, met at the airport by members of Antioch's Anarchists Anonymous, who swayed out into the lazy afternoon in an old Biscayne, through the other worlds of Fairborn and Vandalia, listening to Carmen on the radio, eating homemade bread.

At Gate 3, Hoffman, once busted by the Rochester cops because he wouldn't fasten an airliner seat belt, came down the steep steps, his five o'clock shadow 90 minutes early, brown eyes wary, tentacles of dark hair coiling in the wind, slight savagery in a hound's smile.

"Revolution
founded this country—look at the Minutemen."

AND NOW Hoffman, tongue split in a dozen places from talking through the week end at Antioch with the faithful, is at Wright State. Hoffman, the anarchists' messenger, talking Monday over the sky-stoned clamor of Wright-Patterson planes.

First, he showed the underground answer to Mayor Daley's sarcastically titled televised film, "What Trees Do They Plant?" a defense of the Chicago police.

It was a short film with background by Ed Sanders of The Fugs, a montage of scenes from the Chicago riots interspersed with old footage from the Keystone Kops, WWI doughboy films and Dionysian dabbings from Cecil B. DeMille epics (since, some hippies were arrested in Chicago for planting trees without a permit).

Then out on the grass, surrounded by the sterile splendor of Wright State brick.

"CHICAGO," says Hoffman, "was to show what happens when you deal with the power structure. Cops wipe out kids. Revolution founded this country — look at the Minutemen. But a government has no sense of morality.

"On the East side in New York, we try to live the revolution. Politics is how you live your life. We share whatever we've got because our conception is that property is theft, property is robbery and the landlord is a violent person.

"I had a friend who pulled a fire alarm and sat down on the curb. The fire department came and he said 'The country's on fire.' Bellevue. Who's insane?

"YOU HAVE A right to die in Vietnam. You also have a right to participate in what courses you are taking. You want to help us? Take over a building some night. Have a be-in. You are a product in this business. What happens when the product doesn't work? It's obsolete. Wow.

"I'm just going down the road, fermenting riot. I know it sounds like anarchy, but it's not. It's experimentation. We try a lot of different things. We aren't satisfied with what we've got. The left gives you the whole route. We say 'Whaddaya want?' You make the decisions that affect our life. We're lousy politicians. That's what this country needs, lousy politicians.

"We go around, speak to thousands of kids. They really get excited. This is the thing, they say."

"But what happens, Abbie, when you fly out of here tomorrow or the next day?"

"I DON'T know man," and talks shifts subtly to Chicago, of no plans in the park and results. "We kept Humphrey from getting elected," he says.

"Yeah, but look who's there now."

"We wait awhile," says Hoffman. "Nixon is cool. He's too thin to call a pig. He's a smooth corporation kind of guy. Didn't he write that book, 'My Six Crises'? He'll have more . . ."

"But what then," somebody asks. "Where does it go?"

"I don't know, man. I don't know. I was up all last night thinking about it."

Yippie Leader Held in Raid on Lower East Side

Hoffman Accused of Having Guns and Blackjacks

Abbie Hoffman, a leader of the Yippies, was arrested yesterday on charges of possession of guns and blackjacks after the police raided a Lower East Side apartment at 2:30 A.M.

Detectives said they had found three pistols and quantities of marijuana and heroin in the apartment at 333 East 5th Street. Five men, including one who police said was twirling a pistol on his finger, were arrested. Hoffman, who was not present during the raid, was seized later when he appeared at the station.

The raid came hours after the leader of the Youth International party had been released on $1,000 bail on charges of inciting to riot at demonstrations during the Democratic national convention in Chicago last summer.

On Saturday evening, Hoffman also participated in two midtown demonstrations, one at Grand Central Station and the other at The New York Times.

Twelve demonstrators were arrested on charges of disorderly conduct and possession of a group of about 50 yippies did not stop hissing. "Let's not act like children," he said. "I want no nonsense."

The raid on the 32-year-old Hoffman's combination apartment-office came after a tip from an unidentified youth to the 9th Precinct, just five doors from the apartment.

Hoffman, who was released on $100 bail pending a hearing in April 7, said he was the victim of a police frameup. "It is totally inconceivable that a person of my position would hide an arsenal and dope so close to a police station," he said.

Although Hoffman's address is listed as 114 East 13th Street, Detective Barry Levine said, "The apartment was in his name . . . he is legally responsible for those guns."

Charges against three of the five arrested at the apartment were dismissed. Clyde Pitts, 19, was arraigned on charges of possession of a dangerous weapon and released in $100 bail. Steven Mullen, 20, was released without bail on charges of possession of narcotics.

A hearing for May 8 was set for both men who live at 333 East 5th Street.

Of the 12 demonstrators who appeared in Criminal Court yesterday, three girls were released, six men were paroled and three others were released on $50 bail for later hearings.

A review of information furnished the Bureau by your office concerning captioned subjects, all prominent figures in the New Left and all designated as Key Activists to receive intensified continuing priority investigation, reveals an obvious lack of appropriate coverage and attention being afforded by your office. The dearth of information concerning their travels and activities can only be attributable to insufficient informant coverage and lack of continuing close supervisory attention on your part.

Concerning Dellinger, it is noted he traveled to Paris, France, on January 30, 1969, where it was later learned he had consulted with the North Vietnamese peace delegation. No advance information was received from your office concerning this travel. On 2/27/69 Dellinger spoke at DePauw University, Greencastle, Indiana. No advance information was received from your office concerning this speaking engagement. Recently the Boston Office advised Bureau and your office of the fact that subject will appear at a weekend seminar 4/18-20/69 in Cambridge, Massachusetts. No information received from your office concerning this future engagement. Similarly, the Atlanta Office advised that Dellinger is to speak on "Black Easter" Atlanta, Georgia, on April 6, 1969. Again, no information concerning this speaking commitment was received from your office.

Concerning Rubin, it is noted an article in the Toronto "Globe and Mail" dated 3/4/69 indicated Rubin had within the week prior traveled to Canada to address students at the University of Toronto and York University. Your office developed no information concerning this activity of Rubin. On 3/6/69 and 3/7/69 Rubin appeared at the University of California at Los Angeles and at San Fernando State College, Northridge, California. Information concerning his appearances was furnished by the Los Angeles Office and your office apparently had no advance information concerning this travel. Again on 3/17/69 without advance information from your office Rubin appeared at Beloit College, Beloit, Wisconsin.

Concerning Hoffman, it is noted he appeared at Rio Grande College, Rio Grande, Ohio, on 3/17/69 where disturbances ensued in conjunction with his appearance. He also reportedly appeared at Antioch College, Yellow Springs, Ohio, and Wright State College, Dayton, Ohio, during this trip of which your office furnished no advance information.

The above are not meant to be all inclusive but are only examples showing the intolerable lack of attention afforded these important cases by you, in spite of repeated Bureau instructions as to the necessity for continuing preferred attention and the necessity for your office to closely follow and coordinate coverage of these individuals when they travel outside your territory.

By teletype dated 3/23/69 San Francisco advised Bureau and your office of impending travel to the San Francisco area "next week" by Dellinger, Hoffman and Rubin. On 4/1/69 your office advised San Francisco of the U. S. District Court's travel restrictions imposed on these subjects; however, you furnished no information as to your efforts to develop additional details concerning this travel. On 4/2/69 San Francisco telephonically advised your office of the specific flight number on which these three subjects were to travel. Your teletype dated 4/2/69 to Bureau and San Francisco reported that your informant had advised that Bellinger departed New York City on 4/1/69 or 4/2/69 for a San Francisco speaking engagement, place unknown. No information was furnished to San Francisco concerning plans or travel itinerary for Rubin and Hoffman. Also no indication was given as to investigation conducted by your office to determine if Rubin and Hoffman were still in New York or had also departed.

As you are aware, it is most important to obtain complete information concerning remarks made by individuals such as subjects as basis for possible prosecutive consideration by the Department. As office of origin it is incumbent upon you to coordinate the investigation by directing auxiliary offices to afford all necessary coverage while subjects are traveling outside your division.

You are directed to insure that sufficient manpower and attention are devoted to these investigations to fulfill the responsibilities imposed. Until such time as you can assure the Bureau that you have sufficient coverage to adequately meet these responsibilities, you are directed to submit a daily airtel on each of the above subjects. This airtel is to include information concerning the activities of the subjects, plans for future travel and/or activities, pertinent contacts, information as to funds received and expended and, if appropriate, enclose letterhead memoranda containing pertinent information for dissemination. This airtel must also specifically comment upon your efforts to develop additional informant coverage and results of these efforts. You will be expected to furnish specifics not generalities. It is expected that these cases will receive your personal continuing attention. You will be held personally responsible to insure that these investigations are properly handled in the future.

NOTE:

In view of repeated instances of travel on part of subjects of which the office of origin has not had advance knowledge and in view of the importance of these cases, SAC, New York, is being instructed to submit daily airtels on the activities of these individuals and progress of the New York Office in developing sufficient coverage. These airtels will continue until such time as New York can assure the Bureau that proper coverage will continue. All these subjects were recently indicted by Federal Grand Jury in Chicago for their part in disturbances at Democratic National Convention. All travel frequently to give speeches, usually with violent overtones. Rubin has in past indicated he may make "grand stand play" such as hijacking a plane to Cuba. Rubin and Hoffman both have recent arrests for narcotics violations.

The Bureau by routing slip dated 3/24/69, furnished to the NYO a communication from the headquarters of the 108th MI Group dated 3/13/69, and which communication reflected that during the previous week, one "AB HOFFMAN (supposedly affiliated with SDS)", was a speaker on the campus of the State University of New York (SUNY), at Potsdam, NY. He reportedly brought a group of organizers with him and attempted to organize the student body. There were very few persons attending his speech.

On 4/3/69, Miss DOROTHY BERRIAN, 108th MI Group, NYC, advised the NYO that [REDACTED] NYPD advised a representative of the 108th MI Group on 4/3/69, that "AB HOFFMAN" mentioned above is identical with the subject, but that the alleged SDS connection was in error.
